A Tapestry of History and Heritage

Charleston is a living testament to the American past, its cobblestone streets whispering tales of colonial charm, antebellum elegance, and the resilience of the human spirit. Delve into the city's rich tapestry by visiting historic landmarks such as the Battery, Fort Sumter, and the Old City Market.

Stroll along the picturesque Battery, where cannons once defended the city and now offer panoramic views of the harbor. Listen to the echoes of the Civil War at Fort Sumter, where the first shots were fired. Explore the vibrant Old City Market, a melting pot of cultures where vendors offer artisanal crafts, local delicacies, and historical souvenirs.

Culinary Delights to Enchant Your Palate

Charleston's culinary scene is a symphony of flavors, tantalizing your taste buds with a fusion of Southern hospitality and global influences. Indulge in Lowcountry cuisine at its finest at local restaurants such as Husk, The Obstinate Daughter, and Leon's Oyster Shop.

Sample the freshest seafood at Husk, a celebration of the bounty of the nearby coast. Savor the modern interpretations of Southern classics at The Obstinate Daughter, a culinary haven for food enthusiasts. Shuck fresh oysters at Leon's Oyster Shop, an unassuming gem that serves up the city's best shellfish.

Art and Culture in Abundance

Charleston's artistic soul shines through its galleries, museums, and theaters. Visit the Gibbes Museum of Art to explore a collection spanning centuries, from European masterpieces to contemporary works. Immerse yourself in the world of photography at the Halsey Institute of Contemporary Art, showcasing thought-provoking exhibitions by emerging and established artists.

Attend a performance at the Spoleto Festival USA, a prestigious celebration of performing arts that attracts renowned performers from around the world. Get lost in the charm of the Dock Street Theatre, the oldest surviving theater in the United States, where the spirit of the past comes alive with every performance.

Explore the Natural Wonders of the Lowcountry

Beyond the city limits, the Lowcountry beckons with its pristine beaches, enchanting marshes, and lush forests. Escape to Folly Beach, just a short drive from Charleston, to bask in the sun, splash in the waves, or stroll along the scenic pier.

Paddle through the labyrinthine waterways of the Lowcountry marshes, where egrets and herons soar overhead and the gentle rustling of reeds creates a serene symphony. Discover the ancient forests of Middleton Place, a National Historic Landmark with magnificent gardens, majestic oaks, and a glimpse into the plantation history of the region.
