If you're planning a road trip around Oz, there are a few things you need to keep in mind. First, it's a big country, so you'll need to allow plenty of time for your trip. Second, the outback can be harsh, so you'll need to be prepared for extreme weather conditions. And finally, there are a lot of remote areas, so you'll need to make sure you have a reliable vehicle and plenty of supplies.

But if you're up for the challenge, a road trip around Oz is an experience that you'll never forget. Here's a suggested itinerary for a 61-day road trip around Australia:

1. Day 1-3: Sydney to Broken Hill (1,100km)

Start your journey in Sydney and head west towards the outback. Stop in Broken Hill, a historic mining town, and explore the Silver City.

2. Day 4-6: Broken Hill to Uluru (1,200km)

Continue west to Uluru, the iconic red rock monolith that is one of Australia's most famous landmarks. Camp under the stars and watch the sunset over Uluru.

3. Day 7-9: Uluru to Alice Springs (450km)

Head south to Alice Springs, the gateway to the Red Centre. Visit the Alice Springs Desert Park and learn about the plants and animals of the outback.

4. Day 10-12: Alice Springs to Kings Canyon (450km)

Drive to Kings Canyon and hike the rim walk, which offers stunning views of the canyon and the surrounding desert.

5. Day 13-15: Kings Canyon to Kata Tjuta (300km)

Visit Kata Tjuta, also known as The Olgas, a group of large rock formations that are located near Uluru. Hike around the base of Kata

Tjuta and enjoy the views.

6. Day 16-18: Kata Tjuta to Coober Pedy (600km)

Drive south to Coober Pedy, an underground town that is home to many opal miners. Visit the underground homes and churches, and learn about the history of opal mining in Australia.

7. Day 19-21: Coober Pedy to Port Augusta (550km)

Continue south to Port Augusta, a coastal town on the Spencer Gulf. Visit the Port Augusta Cultural Centre and learn about the history of the town and the surrounding region.

8. Day 22-24: Port Augusta to Adelaide (300km)

Drive to Adelaide, the capital of South Australia. Visit the Adelaide Zoo, the Art Gallery of South Australia, and the South Australian Museum.

9. Day 25-27: Adelaide to Melbourne (700km)

Drive east to Melbourne, the capital of Victoria. Visit the Melbourne Museum, the National Gallery of Victoria, and the Royal Botanic Gardens.

10. Day 28-30: Melbourne to Launceston (450km)

Drive to Launceston, the second-largest city in Tasmania. Visit the Cataract Gorge, the City Park, and the Queen Victoria Museum and Art Gallery.

11. Day 31-33: Launceston to Hobart (200km)

Drive to Hobart, the capital of Tasmania. Visit the Salamanca Market, the Royal Tasmanian Botanical Gardens, and the Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery.

12. Day 34-36: Hobart to Strahan (300km)

Drive to Strahan, a small town on the west coast of Tasmania. Visit the Gordon River Cruises and take a boat trip up the Gordon River.

13. Day 37-39: Strahan to Cradle Mountain (100km)

Drive to Cradle Mountain, a national park in Tasmania. Hike to the summit of Cradle Mountain and enjoy the views of the surrounding mountains and lakes.

14. Day 40-42: Cradle Mountain to Devonport (200km)

Drive to Devonport, a port city on the north coast of Tasmania. Visit the Devonport Regional Gallery and the Bass Strait Maritime Centre.

15. Day 43-45: Devonport to Melbourne (450km)

Drive back to Melbourne and enjoy the rest of your trip.

16. Day 46-48: Melbourne to Sydney (900km)

Drive back to Sydney and finish your epic road trip around Oz.

Tips for Planning Your Road Trip

- Plan your route in advance. There are many different routes you can take on a road trip around Australia, so it's important to plan your route in advance so that you can make the most of your time.
- Book your accommodation in advance. Especially if you're traveling during peak season, it's important to book your accommodation in advance so that you don't end up stranded without a place to stay.
- Be prepared for the outback. The outback can be harsh, so it's important to be prepared for extreme weather conditions. Make sure you have plenty of water, food, and supplies, and that your vehicle is in good working order.
- Don't drive at night. The outback is sparsely populated, and there are many hazards that can make driving at night dangerous, such as kangaroos, emus, and other wildlife.
- Have fun! A road trip around Australia is an amazing experience, so make sure you enjoy yourself and take plenty of time to explore the country's natural beauty and rich culture.
